

TAMANEND PARK FARMERS MARKET

General Rules and Regulations

Vendor Identification: All vendors must clearly display their names/farm names and hometown for customers. A simple sign will do.

Vendor Display: There are no set formats for displays as long as they are contained within the space allotted to you. Please monitor your display and vending area throughout the Market Day to maintain a tidy selling space.

False Pack: No vendor shall use any false pack. As used herein, false pack means the topping or facing of containers with the best produce exposed and poor products concealed underneath.

Signs and Price Tags: Must be clearly marked in your area.

Advertising: No person shall distribute, scatter about or print matter without the consent of the Market Manager.

Sanitation: All vendors are responsible for any refuse generated from their sales operation. Any vendor or user of space at the Market must keep his immediate premises reasonably clean, sanitary, orderly and safe for consumers. All space must be cleaned at the end of each selling day. Dumpsters are available but items must be placed all the way inside the dumpster.

Produce and Produce Quality: No person shall sell produce or products which are unsound and unwholesome or which fail to meet the standards or requirements of Federal, State or local laws and regulations. In no case will produce be offered for sale that contains a total of more than 10 percent decay, shriveling and/or blemishes, at the discretion of the Market Manager.

Baked Goods: Fresh baked foods can be sold if all items prepared meet all Health Department regulations regarding preparation, labeling and packaging.

Vendor Relations and Fair Practices: No vendor shall do any act or use any language deemed detrimental to anyone. Vendors should avoid aggressive or high pressure sales or promoting tactics and must interact with customers for sales only within the boundaries of their space. All vendors are responsible for the actions of their employees.

Damage to Market Property: Persons causing damage to Market property shall be financially responsible for the cost of repairs or replacements. Such damage shall include, but not be limited to, buildings, grounds, fences, gates, vehicles and any other property owned and/or operated by the Market.

Liability: Vendors are required to carry general liability and automobile insurance and must produce evidence of these policies upon request.

The Park Director reserves the right to modify or change the rules and regulations if it becomes necessary.
